

Temiskaming Native Women's Support Group

Presents

Aboriginal Women in Mining

Accepting applications ongoing

Aboriginal women ages 18 years and older may apply

- Training for careers in mining and supporting industries.
- 6 weeks Employment Life Skills to include, Job Readiness, Communication, Problem Solving, Decision making, Building Resumes and Portfolios.
- Daycare, transportation and accommodation available based on need.
- Up to 6 weeks on-the-job training with industry partners (Administration, Surface Miner, Equipment Operating, Maintenance, Sampling, Camp Services, and Security etc.)
- Additional funding from external agencies may enhance training (EX: Aboriginal Training Agencies, Government Sources or Employers)

In support of the MCFN & Detour Gold Agreement, Presentation to MCFN Women Members

When: JUNE 19th, 2015 Times: First Session: 9:00am to Noon
Second Session: 1:00pm to 4:00pm

Where: Emergency Preparedness Response Building (EPR)
Moose Factory, ON

If you are interested in preparing to enter the Mining field, please join us at the proposed sessions.
We look forward to meeting and speaking with you. See you there.