

Moose Cree
First Nation

HEALTH SERVICES SERVICES & PROGRAMMING SUMMER 2014

Living Without Violence

This Anger Management program is based on the holistic approach to healing and self well-ness. It offers culturally appropriate tools to teach skills in assisting each participant to accept responsibility for self change and gain greater control over their lives.

Facilitators: Penny Turner, Health Services Counselor & Kelly Louttit, Family Service Worker

Begins June 2014!

Family & Couples Counselling

Kevin McPhee has a Master's Degree in Social Work with a specialization in Family Therapy. He is also a member of the American Association of Marital and Family Therapists. He has worked in the mental health field for 28 years, mostly with families. His private practice has included working with First Nations throughout Northern Ontario. He will be providing on-going consultations with Moose Cree Health Services staff throughout the year.

For appointments, please call our office.

Parenting Workshops

This is an educational experience which purpose is to provide parents with an opportunity to share with other parents learn new ideas and examine beliefs in a supportive and accepting setting. Our goal is to empower each parent with the skills necessary to raise happy well adjusted children.

Facilitator: Kelly Louttit, Family Service Worker
Begins May 22nd, 2014!

Grief Edu-Therapy

Grief Edu-Therapy is recognized as one of the most effective modules in dealing with the pain caused by loss. These group sessions are an action-based program that will teach grievers the knowledge and skills necessary in dealing with loss.

Please call for information on upcoming sessions

For More Information or to register for programming, please call: (705) 658-4619 ext.256

Penny Turner
Health Services Counselor
Ext. 259

Kelly Louttit
Family Services Worker
Ext. 273

April Hookimaw
Youth Services Worker
Ext. 307

Joy-Anne Cheechoo
Crisis Support Worker
Ext. 283