Moose Cree First Nation
Is looking for interested
MCFN members
to sit on:

Future Governance Committee

PURPOSE:

The Moose Cree First Nation (MCFN) Future Governance Committee was established by the MCFN Chief and Council to identify and examine the steps that MCFN must consider if they were to become involved in a self-government negotiation with the federal government. In order for a First Nation to remove themselves from the Indian Act and all provisions within it, they must negotiate and finalize a self-government agreement with Canada. The Future Governance Committee (FGC) is also tasked with reviewing previous MCFN governance initiatives, including the previous draft Constitution, and prepare a plan with recommendations for the consideration to the Chief and Council.

REQUIRES:

- Two (2) members at large who are MCFN Band Members.

Terms of Reference is available at the Executive Office.

Please apply in writing or by email, or in person, and forward your letter of interest to:
